FOREWORD

A year at Fletcher High----Remembering all the little things that counted.--seeing the knowledge that wiser ones had to give. May Day, Junior-Senior.--thrilling to the opening game---heaving a sigh of relief when exams are over ---and finally realizing that it was all worth while.

Today as we face tomorrow we are inspired through our memories of a year at Fletcher High.

DEDICATION

We the Seniors of 1959 count it a great privilege to dedicate this annual, "The Chanticleer" to our sponsor and teacher, Mr. Worley. He has shown deep understanding, sympathy, and real sincerity toward the Class of "59" and helped us complete our final year at Fletcher High.

SCHOOL SONG

Fletcher High we'll e're be faithful
All the days through,
E're be true and loyal lovers of the White and blue.
Praise and Glory, fame and honor,
May they grace thy throne
In the realms of high school memories
We claim thee our own.
Hail, oh Hail, our Alma Mater
Praise thee to the sky,
Ever hail thee, never fail thee
Our dear FLETCHER HIGH

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

Being of as sound a mind and body as can be expected after twelve long years, we, the Seniors of 1959, with deepest regrets will our most precious possessions to the lucky members of the Junior Class.

First: To all the faculty we leave our sincere thanks for enduring us through all these years, and our deepest sympathy for what they will have to endure in years to come.

Second: To the Senior Class of '60 we leave our homeroom, our front seats in chapel, our senior privileges (if they can find them), a gold mine to pay for the cost of graduation, and our best wishes for a good Senior year.

To Mr. Hill we leave our deepest appreciation for his help and guidance during our hours of need, and we hope he can get him four secretaries to help him with all his work.

To Mr. Worley we leave the Senior Class of '60 hoping he will have a perfect English Class.

To Mrs. Griffin we leave our deepest devotion for all the help she has been to us in the past years.

To Mr. Griffin we leave what is left of the ball teams, knowing they will always be champs, with such a capable coach.

To Mrs. Caldwell we leave the complete Home Ec. Department, wishing for her the best of luck in everything.

To Mr. Francis we leave all the equipment we have broken around the school knowing he will fix it.

To Mr. Laughter we leave the science laboratory and we hope he will have better luck with his experiments in the coming years, than in the past.

J. Bryan Angel leaves his playboy ways to David Livingston.

Virginia Bagwell leaves ner ability to side-swipe a gas tank while getting gas to Carolyn Maxwell.

Larry Baker leaves his ability to play ball to James Allen.

Ronald Baker leaves his ability to cut class to Wallace Moore.

David Barnwell leaves his quite ways to Kennth Rhodes hoping he can use them.

Kennth Barnwell leaves his side-burns to R. C. Souther.

Ann Bell leaves her ability to cheer to Brenda Cunningham and hopes she can make captain.

John Biddy leaves his tardies to Ellen Garren hoping she can get rid of them.

Charles Garren leaves his road map to Calton's store to Wallace Moore.

Bruce Humphrey leaves his Yankee ways to Jimmy Garren.

Ruby Johnson leaves her love for soldiers to Faye Garland.

Barbara Parris leaves her ability to get a husband in her senior year to Barbara Lloyd.

Joyce Lance leaves her ability to get "Most Popular" to Nancy Rhodes.

Lee Roy Lewis leaves his ability to get "Most Courteous" to Polly McCanless.

Carmel Mathis leaves his ability to operate the movie projector to Jimmy Garren.

Roy McKinney leaves his friendly ways to Beulah Hutchinson.

Ruth McMinn leaves her love for Fords to Annette Garren.

Harold McLaughlin leaves his typing ability to Shirrey Huntley.

Max Moore leaves his good sportsmanship to Tommy Robinson.

Wayne Neal leaves his love for the girls to Tommy Singleton.

Shirley Praytor leaves her love to receive telephone calls to Patti Evans.

Lois Robinson leaves her love for Mr. Laughter to Georgie Buckner.

Patty Robinson leaves her sense of humor to Caroline Hardin.

Gloria Smith leaves her special privilege of leaving school early to Jimmy Garren.

Lee Tucker leaves his love for mischief to James Allen.

Doris Wilkie leaves her ability to get "Most Talented" to Gail Smith.

Shirley Wilkie leaves her ability to tell jokes to Jimmy Russell.
